Berry Heritage Festival

April 27 & 28, 2018

Berry, Alabama

We are proud to sponsor the town of Berry's ninth annual "Berry Heritage Festival". The festival is being held Friday, April 27, 2018 from 5 p.m. until - , and April 28, 2018 from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. The downtown area will be buzzing with activities including live entertainment, arts and crafts, a food court, a combined vintage car, tractor and motorcycle "Cruise In" and a FREE kid's area. The festival will be centered around Berry Heritage Park. The park has beautiful magnolia trees along a curving walking trail and provides an excellent setting to enjoy the food and festivities to be had by all on a beautiful spring week-end. Bring your lawn chair and be prepared to have a good time.

Berry is located in Fayette County-north of Tuscaloosa and northwest of Birmingham.

Booth Size: 12' x 12'
Price: First Booth-Free $25 for each additional 12' x 12' space (adjoining or separate)
$10 if electricity is needed

Contact Information: Call Marie McCluskey or Marsha Locke at (205)689-4562
E-mail: townofberry@centurytel.net
Visit our website at townofberryalabama.org.